

PROBATE COURT OF HAMILTON COUNTY, OHIO
RALPH WINKLER, JUDGE

IN THE MATTER OF _____ Respondent

CASE NO. _____

ORDER TO HOSPITAL TO COMPLETE A PHYSICAL EXAMINATION OF
THE RESPONDENT AND TO PERFORM A DRUG AND ALCOHOL
ADDICATION ASSESSMENT AND DIAGNOSIS
(R.C. 5119.94, R.C. 5119.96)

TO: _____
Hospital

You are hereby notified that a Petition for Involuntary Treatment for Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse has been filed with this court. A Probable Cause Hearing was conducted. The court found probable cause to determine that the Respondent suffers from alcohol and/or other drug abuse and could reasonably benefit from treatment.

A summons was issued to the Respondent that directed the Respondent to appear before a qualified health professional, who is properly credentialed or licensed under Ohio law, to conduct a drug and alcohol assessment and diagnosis and to appear before a physician for the purposes of a physical examination. The Respondent did not comply with the summons.

Pursuant to R.C. 5119.96, the court may order the sheriff or any peace offer to transport the Respondent to the hospital for the purposes of a physical examination and a drug and alcohol assessment and diagnosis. The court has issued that order to the Hamilton County Sheriff and/or any Police Officer.

The hospital to which the Respondent was delivered is hereby ordered to:

- () have a physician perform a physical examination on the respondent and reduce the findings of the examination to writing;
- () have a qualified health professional complete a drug and alcohol assessment and diagnosis for the Respondent and reduce the findings of the assessment and diagnosis to writing;
- () provide to the court copies of the written reports of the physical examinations and the copies of the written drug and alcohol assessment and diagnosis to the Hamilton County Probate Court, 230 E. Ninth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202.
