INSTRUCTIONS FOR ESTABLISHING A SPECIAL NEEDS TRUST

These instructions are intended as a guideline only and should not be relied upon as a comprehensive list of duties in a special needs trust.

The following information and forms are designed to offer procedural advice and direction to accomplish this task.

If you have a settlement for the benefit of a minor or an alleged incompetent with special needs, it may be in the ward's best interest to establish a SPECIAL NEEDS TRUST.

First, it is necessary for a guardian to be appointed for the minor or alleged incompetent.
Second, the guardian shall apply for the approval of the settlement for the benefit of the minor or incompetent. This guardian is also the person who will apply for the SPECIAL NEEDS TRUST.

This trust shall be administered as any other trust in the Probate Court. Bond shall be required of every non-corporate fiduciary unless bond is waived according to law.

A fee is required at the time of filing. Current Court Costs are posted at: https://www.probatect.org/about/general-resources. Please confirm the amount with the Cashier since filing fees may have changed subsequent to the publication of the instruction sheet. We accept cash, cashier's checks or all major credit/debit cards as payment for the fee. No personal checks or money orders will be accepted.

The forms may be obtained from the Information Desk on the 9th floor of the Probate Court, 230 E. 9th Street, Cincinnati, Ohio or by downloading the forms from the web site.

A CITIZEN'S GUIDE TO COMMUNICATING WITH THE JUDGE AND MAGISTRATES

Why can't I communicate directly with the judge or magistrate on my case?

If the matters are contested, judges and magistrates are not allowed to communicate with individual parties. This is what the law calls an ex-parte communication (this is when a judge or magistrate only communicates with an individual party, on their own, without the knowledge of all parties to a case). In order to keep the court process as fair, equal and as transparent as possible, ex-parte communication is strictly forbidden. It is unfair for the court to share information without all of the parties present.

You cannot email the judge or magistrate, as the email is considered an ex-parte communication. In addition, emails are not pleadings (motions.) You cannot write a personal letter to the judge or magistrate as this may be considered an ex-parte communication.

How can I speak to the judge or magistrate on my case?

Typically, to speak to the judge or magistrate on your case, you must file a written motion with the court explaining what you want the court to do and all motions become part of the public record. You also have to send a copy of whatever you file to the other parties, or their attorney if they are represented by an attorney (this is called "service"). A motion is not considered an ex-parte communication because all parties are officially notified. You may be required to pay a filing fee when you file your written motion. Please note, there is no fee if you wish to speak to the magistrate in an uncontested matter, on their assigned walk-in days.

I've heard there's always a magistrate on duty to hear arguments immediately – what does that mean?

There is a magistrate on duty every business day. The on-duty magistrate may answer generic procedural questions. The on-duty magistrate may also discuss matters in an uncontested case. For all other matters, the on-duty magistrate is prohibited from speaking with you. To address the court for these matters, you must file a written motion. The on-duty magistrate will set the matter for hearing before the magistrate assigned on your case or the judge.

What if I need to tell the judge or magistrate something I don't want the other party to know about?

Unfortunately, you cannot withhold information from another party to your case. In order to keep the case fair to everyone involved, as soon as you tell the judge or magistrate something, you must also tell the other parties. All sides must have an opportunity to respond to the information that you have shared with the court.
