A CITIZEN'S GUIDE TO COMMUNICATING WITH THE JUDGE AND MAGISTRATES

Why can't I communicate directly with the judge or magistrate on my case?

If the matters are contested, judges and magistrates are not allowed to communicate with individual parties. This is what the law calls an ex-parte communication (this is when a judge or magistrate only communicates with an individual party, on their own, without the knowledge of all parties to a case). In order to keep the court process as fair, equal and as transparent as possible, ex-parte communication is strictly forbidden. It is unfair for the court to share information without all of the parties present.

You cannot email the judge or magistrate, as the email is considered an ex-parte communication. In addition, emails are not pleadings (motions.) You cannot write a personal letter to the judge or magistrate as this may be considered an ex-parte communication.

How can I speak to the judge or magistrate on my case?

Typically, to speak to the judge or magistrate on your case, you must file a written motion with the court explaining what you want the court to do and all motions become part of the public record. You also have to send a copy of whatever you file to the other parties, or their attorney if they are represented by an attorney (this is called "service"). A motion is not considered an ex-parte communication because all parties are officially notified. You may be required to pay a filing fee when you file your written motion. Please note, there is no fee if you wish to speak to the magistrate in an uncontested matter, on their assigned walk-in days.

I've heard there's always a magistrate on duty to hear arguments immediately – what does that mean?

There is a magistrate on duty every business day. The on-duty magistrate may answer generic procedural questions. The on-duty magistrate may also discuss matters in an uncontested case. For all other matters, the on-duty magistrate is prohibited from speaking with you. To address the court for these matters, you must file a written motion. The on-duty magistrate will set the matter for hearing before the magistrate assigned on your case or the judge.

What if I need to tell the judge or magistrate something I don't want the other party to know about?

Unfortunately, you cannot withhold information from another party to your case. In order to keep the case fair to everyone involved, as soon as you tell the judge or magistrate something, you must also tell the other parties. All sides must have an opportunity to respond to the information that you have shared with the court.

CASE NO. _____

JUDGMENT ENTRY
APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN FOR INCOMPETENT PERSON
[R.C. 2111.02 and Sup. R. 66.04 and 66.06]

Upon hearing the application for appointment of guardian herein the Court finds that _____, the above-named Ward is incompetent by reason of _____ and therefore is incapable of taking proper care of _____ self and _____ property, and that a guardianship is necessary.

The Court further finds that all persons who were entitled to notice of the hearing thereon were given or waived notice thereof; that the incompetent is a resident of this county or has legal settlement herein; and that this Court has jurisdiction.

It is therefore ordered that a (limited) guardian of the (person and estate) be appointed.

The Court therefore appoints _____, a suitable and competent person, (limited) guardian of the (person and estate) of, _____, the above-named Ward, incompetent, with the powers conferred as described, and limited to those powers contained in the Letters of Guardianship issued by this Court. This appointment is in compliance with R.C. 2111.09.

- ☐ The Court approves/dispenses with the bond.
- ☐ The Court finds a record of the hearing was waived.

The Court orders Letters of Guardianship be issued to _____ as provided by law.

For good cause shown, the Court finds that the appointed Guardian (is/is not) exempt from the provisions of Sup. R. 66.01 et seq since (he/she) is related to the Ward.
