IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PUBLICATION: Beginning August 17, 2021, Ohio Law no longer requires that applications to Change Name be set for formal hearing. However, a hearing may still be required in the Court's discretion. If a hearing is requested by the Court, the application will be set for hearing at a future date and publication of notice may be required in a newspaper of general circulation in the County at least thirty (30) days before the hearing on the application. Otherwise, the application will be considered by the Magistrate who reviews the documents.

If publication is required, you will use the NOTICE OF HEARING ON CHANGE OF NAME for this purpose. If you use the Cincinnati Court Index Press the NOTICE OF HEARING ON CHANGE OF NAME will be left with the cashier and the Cincinnati Court Index Press will pick up the notice. The Cincinnati Court Index Press will be paid directly by the Court from the initial filing fees for this case. After publication is completed, the Cincinnati Court Index Press will send the Court a Proof of Publication and an Entry Approving Publication. If you choose another newspaper for publication, it is your responsibility to send the newspaper the NOTICE OF HEARING ON CHANGE OF NAME, pay the publication cost and bring the Proof of Publication and the Entry Approving Publication with you to your hearing.

If the publication is not completed at least thirty (30) days prior to the hearing, the name change cannot be granted and re-publication will be required at additional cost and delay to you.

A CITIZEN'S GUIDE TO COMMUNICATING WITH THE JUDGE AND MAGISTRATES

Why can't I communicate directly with the judge or magistrate on my case?

If the matters are contested, judges and magistrates are not allowed to communicate with individual parties. This is what the law calls an ex-parte communication (this is when a judge or magistrate only communicates with an individual party, on their own, without the knowledge of all parties to a case). In order to keep the court process as fair, equal and as transparent as possible, ex-parte communication is strictly forbidden. It is unfair for the court to share information without all of the parties present.

You cannot email the judge or magistrate, as the email is considered an ex-parte communication. In addition, emails are not pleadings (motions.) You cannot write a personal letter to the judge or magistrate as this may be considered an ex-parte communication.

How can I speak to the judge or magistrate on my case?

Typically, to speak to the judge or magistrate on your case, you must file a written motion with the court explaining what you want the court to do and all motions become part of the public record. You also have to send a copy of whatever you file to the other parties, or their attorney if they are represented by an attorney (this is called "service"). A motion is not considered an ex-parte communication because all parties are officially notified. You may be required to pay a filing fee when you file your written motion. Please note, there is no fee if you wish to speak to the magistrate in an uncontested matter, on their assigned walk-in days.

I've heard there's always a magistrate on duty to hear arguments immediately – what does that mean?

There is a magistrate on duty every business day. The on-duty magistrate may answer generic procedural questions. The on-duty magistrate may also discuss matters in an uncontested case. For all other matters, the on-duty magistrate is prohibited from speaking with you. To address the court for these matters, you must file a written motion. The on-duty magistrate will set the matter for hearing before the magistrate assigned on your case or the judge.

What if I need to tell the judge or magistrate something I don't want the other party to know about?

Unfortunately, you cannot withhold information from another party to your case. In order to keep the case fair to everyone involved, as soon as you tell the judge or magistrate something, you must also tell the other parties. All sides must have an opportunity to respond to the information that you have shared with the court.
