Final Checklist for Will - Single with No Children

Willmaker: Michael J. Tometich

January 19, 2014

Make It Legal

MJ. This Will is not valid unless it is signed by a Willmaker who is of "sound mind" and of the minimum age or older for this state. In most states, the minimum age is 18. Some states permit an individual below the minimum age to sign a will if the person is married or in the military. Being of "sound mind" requires that the Willmaker: (a) know that he or she is signing a will, (b) know the general nature and extent of his or her property, and (c) know the descendants or other relatives that would ordinarily be expected to share in the estate.

MJ. The Will should be signed by Michael J. Tometich in the presence of three DISINTERESTED adult witnesses and a notary public. Many states require only two witnesses, but the signature of a third witness provides some protection against the possibility that one of the witness' signature will be invalid for some reason. For example, a person should not be a witness if that person is a beneficiary under the Will. In most states, if a beneficiary's signature is counted in order to satisfy the minimum number of witnesses, then the Will is not necessarily invalidated, but that "interested witness" may not receive a share of the estate any larger than if the Willmaker had died without a will.

MJ. All of the witnesses must watch Michael J. Tometich sign this Will. Michael J. Tometich should verbally declare that the document is intended to be his or her Last Will and Testament, but the witnesses need not read the Will or know of its contents.

MJ. Each witness must sign his or her name with the Willmaker and the other witnesses present. The witnesses should be satisfied that the Willmaker willingly signed the document as his or her free and voluntary act, and that the Willmaker was of full age and sound mind.

MJ. Michael J. Tometich should initial on the bottom margin of each page of the Will. This is done to prevent the subsequent substitution of pages. To print out a line for initials at the bottom of each page of your document, choose "Preferences" from the "View" menu, click on the "Print" tab and mark the appropriate checkbox.

MJ. The date should be filled in wherever requested, using the date on which the actual signing takes place. This step could become essential to the validity of the Will (for example, if this Will revokes an earlier Will).

MJ. The number of total pages in the Will should be indicated, including the page(s) on which the witness signature lines appear. The page with the affidavit, if included, should not be counted because the affidavit is not a part of the Will itself.

W.T.

The self-proving affidavit (or "Proof of Will" in some states) is a document which should be signed and attached to the end of the Will, and which contains the Willmaker's acknowledgment and the affidavit of the witnesses, made before a person authorized to take acknowledgments and administer oaths. The affidavit recites that the requisite formalities were observed in signing the Will.

Although attaching the affidavit has nothing to do with the legality of the Will itself, it can speed the admission of the Will to probate after the death of the Willmaker because it eliminates the need to have a witness appear at the probate proceeding to testify that the formalities in signing the Will were followed. The witnesses may not be available later when they are needed. A self-proved Will may be admitted to probate without additional witnesses or affidavits, but it is still subject to contest on such grounds as undue influence, lack of testamentary capacity, or prior revocation.

Some states do not recognize the self-proving option. Therefore, the affidavit will be of no use in those states. However, including the affidavit in those states will not invalidate the Will.

Copies

- * The original of the Will should be kept in a secure location such as a safe deposit box at a bank, because only the signed original can be probated. A copy could be kept in the Willmaker's home files.
- * The Willmaker may wish to provide a copy to his or her lawyer, or possibly to the person named as Executor. However, before distributing such copies, the Willmaker should consider that it may become awkward to retrieve them later, should the Willmaker decide to modify the Will and/or change the designation of Executor.

When to Consult a Lawyer

- * If the Willmaker is unable to sign due to physical disability, another person may be able to sign on behalf of the Willmaker, in the Willmaker's presence, and at the express direction of the Willmaker. However, this document does not provide the necessary language for another person to sign for the Willmaker. For assistance with this procedure, a lawyer should be contacted.

Other Information

- * This Will does not dispose of property which passes on the death of the Willmaker to a person by operation of law or by any contract. For example, the Will does not dispose of joint tenancy assets and it does not normally apply to proceeds of life insurance on the Willmaker's life or to his or her retirement plan benefits.

- * This Will is not designed to reduce taxes. The tax results of the choices made in this Will should be discussed with a competent tax advisor.
- * In most states, the Will cannot be changed by adding, deleting, or modifying words on the face of the Will. Such changes are usually disregarded. When changes are desired, it is recommended that the Will be revoked by signing a new Will which expressly revokes the former Will. For example, if the Willmaker marries or divorces after the Will is signed, he or she should make and sign a new will.

Reasons to Update

- * Marriage.
- * The birth or adoption of children. A new will with provisions for minor children should be created.
- * A move to another state.
- * A significant change in financial status.
- * A significant change in tax laws.
- * The death of a beneficiary.
- * A desire to add or change beneficiaries.
- * The death or incapacity of a named executor.
