No. 176

State of Ohio, Hamilton County,
Probate Court.

In the matter of the

Ethan Stone estate

Application.

Now comes Frederick Tischbein trustee under the last will of Ethan Stone deceased and states to the court that condemnation proceedings were brought in the Court of Common Pleas, Hamilton County, in case 147139 by The City of Cincinnati, against F. D. Goodhue, lessee of the property belonging to the said Ethan Stone estate, and that verdict was given and judgment entered in favor of F. D. Goodhue in the sum of Four hundred and twenty-five ($425) Dollars for a small strip of ground along the lower side of Elberon Avenue, and in order to give good title to The City of Cincinnati, for said strip of land in said proceedings, it is necessary for ^{said} Frederick Tischbein, trustee, to obtain an order from this court, waiving all interest in said strip taken in favor of The City of Cincinnati.

That the property under lease to F.D. Goodhue is leased at a rental of Twenty-two dollars and fifty cents ($22.50) a year under perpetual lease and that the balance of the property is worth over Ten thousand ($10,000) Dollars, and is more than ample security to the said trustee for the payment of said lease rent and that the release of said strip to The City of Cincinnati will in no wise impair the security to said trustee for said rent.

Wherefore said trustee asks for an order from this court authorizing him to release all claim to the said strip to said The City of Cincinnati.

ENTRY AUTHORIZING SALE OF GROUND RENT, AND RE-INVESTMENT OF PROCEEDS.

Whereas, three affidavits have been presented to this Court, that it would be greatly to the advantage of the parties in interest in the portion of the above estate held by John Maegly as Trustee for the education of indigent scholars preparing for the ministry in the Episcopal Church, that the following described ground rent now held by said John Maegly upon the trusts aforesaid, to-wit:

Situated in Hamilton County, Ohio, formerly Storrs Township, and being 50 ft. in front on the River Road, now known as West Sixth St., and running back from said River Road (now Sixth St.) to the tow path of the Whitewater Canal (now the Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis & Chicago Railroad), and measuring 100 ft., more or less, in depth, bounded on the north by said Sixth St., east by a lot of land formerly owned by Philip Munrath, south by the north line of said Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis & Chicago Railroad (formerly Whitewater Canal), and west by a lot formerly owned by Joseph Donohue, said premises being subject to a perpetual lease now owned by Margaret Henzerling, being the same perpetual leasehold estate conveyed to said Margaret Henzerling, by deed dated April 25, 1899, recorded in Deed Book 832, page 167, of the Records of Hamilton County, Ohio, the real estate above described being subject to an annual ground rent to be paid to the estate of Ethan Stone, of 25 cents per front foot perpetually; said ground rent amounting to $12.50 per annum, and the lease upon which is now owned by Margaret Henzerling, should be sold for not less than the sum of $379.50, the proceeds to be invested and held upon the trusts aforesaid, in such securities as are authorized by law, or in which this Court may direct the investment of the same, the expenses of said sale, including costs in this court, attorney fees, compensation to said Trustee, etc., to be paid by, and charged to, said trust; and

Whereas, said Margaret Henzerling, the present owner of said leasehold, has offered to pay in cash for said ground rent, i.e. the fee simple title of said premises, subject to said perpetual lease, the sum of $379.50; and

Whereas, the Court finds that said sum of $379.50 so offered for said ground rent, after paying therefrom court costs, attorney fees and compensation to said Trustee, as aforesaid, will yield, for the benefit of said trust, the same rate of income as is now derived from said ground rent, and that it would be to the advantage of the parties in interest in said trust, that said ground rent should be sold, and the proceeds re-invested, as hereinafter ordered:

Now, Therefore, it is ordered by the Court that said John Maegly, Trustee of the Estate of Ethan Stone under the trusts aforesaid, be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to make said sale to said Margaret Henzerling, and upon payment of said sum of $379.50, to deliver to her a quit claim deed, conveying said ground rent, to-wit, the fee simple title to said premises, subject to the lease aforesaid now outstanding thereon.

And it appearing to the Court, that the expenses of making said sale, for attorney fees and costs of this Court in regard thereto, amount to $30, and that said John Maegly, as Trustee aforesaid, for his services in negotiating the carrying out of said sale, is fairly entitled to the sum of $25, it is ordered that the above amount be allowed said John Maegly in his accounts as Trustee hereafter to be filed; and the balance of said proceeds of sale, amounting to $324.50, said Trustee is ordered to invest in such securities as Trustees are authorized by law to make investments in.
