This day this cause came on further to be heard upon the application of Albert L. Tischbein, Trustee under the will of Ethan Stone, deceased, for an order allowing certain costs and expenses incurred by him in conducting the decennial election held in former Storrs Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, on Monday, October 2nd, 1933, to determine the recipient of a church fund for the propagation of the Protestant religion in said former Township for the period of ten years next ensuing from May 1st, 1934, as provided in the will of said decedent, and for an allowance to his counsel for legal services rendered and advice furnished said trustee, all as set out in said application, and upon the evidence, and was submitted to the court: On consideration whereof the court find the statements made in said application to be true; that the costs and expenses incurred by said trustee in the printing of ballots of $35.75, the newspaper publications of notice of said election of $37.90, and the cost of pens, ink, poll-books and postage all in connection with the holding of said decennial election, were necessary, and are reasonable and proper charges in the premises and ought to be allowed. The court further find that in the administration of said trust estate, and especially in the preparation for and the holding of said decennial election foresaid, it became and was necessary for said trustee to secure and employ legal advice and assistance; that he employed H. A. Nieberding, an attorney at law, in that capacity; that said H. A. penses incurred by said Albert L. Tischbein, Trustee herein, as above found by the court, totalling $75.64, in the preparation for and the conduct and holding of said decennial election be, and the same are hereby allowed as proper and valid charges against said trust estate; and further, that said trustee aforesaid be, and hereby is authorized and ordered to pay to said H. A. Wieberding, out of said trust fund, the sum of $ 100⁰⁰ as the reasonable value of the legal advice furnished and services rendered and performed by him in the premises; and that upon payment of said respective amounts said trustee be allowed to credit his account with same in settlement of said trust estate.
